Article III

Association Members

1. Annual Meeting of Members. The annual meeting of the members shall be held at the principal office of the Association or such other location within Greenville County, South Carolina as designated by the Board of Directors at a date and time to be set by the Board of Directors during the month of November for the purpose of election of the Board of Directors and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

2. Substitute Annual Meeting. If the annual meeting is not held on the day designated in these By-Laws, a substitute annual meeting may be called in accordance with the provisions of Article III, Section 3 as in the case of special meetings. A meeting so called shall be designated and treated for all purposes as the annual meeting.

3 Special Meetings of Members. Special meetings of the Members may be held at the principal office of the Association, or elsewhere within Greenville County, South Carolina whenever called in writing as provided in Article III, Section 4, by the President, by any member of the Board of Directors of the Association, or by Members representing twenty percent (20%) of the membership entitled to vote.

4. Notice of Meeting. Notices of meetings shall be in writing, shall state the date, time and place of meeting, and shall be posted at each mail box. The notice of each meeting shall be posted not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than forty (40) days prior to the date set for such meeting and as to special meetings, the notice shall indicate the purpose or purposes of such special meeting.

5. Quorum. Unless otherwise specified in the Declaration, at any meeting of the Members, twenty percent (20%) of the Members entitled to vote, present in person, or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum of the membership for all purposes. If a quorum is not present, the meeting may be recessed by the presiding officer at the time such meeting was set and such shall be sufficient notice of the time and place of the recessed meeting. The Members present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum.

6. Organization. The President, or in his or her absence, the Vice-President, shall preside over all meetings of Members and the Secretary of the Association shall act as Secretary at all meetings of the Members, provided, however, in the Secretary's absence, the President may appoint a Secretary for the meeting of the Members.

7. Voting. Each Lot shall give its Owner(s) the right to vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of Members. If more than one Owner owns a Lot, only one vote may be cast by the Owners of such Lot as Members of the Association. The vote of a majority of the Members at a duly called meeting of Members at which a quorum is at the beginning of the meeting present shall be the act of the Members on that matter, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or by the Declaration, the Associations' Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws. Cumulative voting shall not be allowed.

8. Voting By Proxy. The vote allocated to a Member may be cast pursuant to a dated written proxy signed by the Member. A Member may not revoke a proxy except by appearing and voting at a meeting in person or by written notice delivered to the President prior to a meeting of the Association. A proxy terminates one year after its date, unless it specifies a shorter term.

9. Waiver of Notice. Any Member may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting of Members in writing and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a Member at any meeting of the Members shall constitute a waiver of notice by him/HER of the time and place thereof, except when a Member attends a meeting for the express limited purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called. If all the Members are present at any meeting of the Members, no notice shall be required to have been given and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

10. Informal Action by Members. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the persons who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting and filed with the Secretary of the Association to be kept in the Association's minute book.

Article IV

Board of Directors

1. Number and Term of Office. The business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors of no fewer than three (3) persons, who shall be Members of the Association, or shall be designated by the Declarant. Each Director shall serve a term of two (2) years unless he dies, resigns, retires, is removed, or disqualified, or his or her successor is elected and qualified.

2. Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he/she she may render to the Association. However, with the prior approval of the Board, any Director may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of his/her duties.

3. Nomination. After the first election of Directors, nominations for election to the Board shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a member of the Board, and two or more Members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board prior to each annual meeting of the Members. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board as it shall in its discretion determine, but not fewer than the number of vacancies that are to be filled.

4. Election. Except as provided in Section 5 of this Article IV, Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Members by written ballot. At such election, the Members or their proxies may cast, with respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Declaration. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting shall not be allowed.

5. Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Members. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Director, his or her successor shall be selected by the remaining Directors and shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor. The Members may elect a Director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the remaining Directors by special meeting duly called as provided in these By-Laws.
6. Action without Meeting. The Board shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a duly held meeting by obtaining the written consent of all of the Directors to the action. Any action so approved shall be filed in the corporate books and records and shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Board.
7. Meetings. Meetings of the Board shall be at the call of the Chairman, but at least three (3) times per year at such place and hour as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Meetings of the Board of Directors maybe open or closed to the members of the Association at the discretion of the Chairman and members of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by any director no less than five days notice to all directors.
8. Quorum. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting shall be regarded as the act of the Board.
9. Chairman. A Chairman to the Board shall be elected by the Directors and shall preside over all Board meetings until the President of the Association is elected. Thereafter, the President of the Association shall serve as Chairman. In the event there is a vacancy in the office of Presidency, the Vice-President shall serve as Chairman until a new President is elected.
10. Liability of the Board. The members of the Board of Directors shall not be liable to the Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for their own individual willful misconduct or bad faith. The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the members of the Board against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board on behalf of the Association unless any such contracts shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Declaration of these By-Laws. It is intended that the members of the Board shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Association.

The indemnification provided herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any statute, by-law, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, personal representatives, guardians, and conservators of such a person.

The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

The Association's indemnity of any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall be reduced by any amounts such person may collect as indemnification (a) under any policy of insurance purchased and maintained on his or her behalf by the Association, or (b) from such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

Nothing contained in this Article, or elsewhere in these By-Laws, shall operate to indemnify any Director or officer if such indemnification is for any reason contrary to any applicable state or federal law.

11. Powers and Authority of the Board of Directors. Subject to the provisions contained in the Declaration herein, and applicable law, the Board shall have the power and authority to exercise all of the rights and powers of the Association, including but not limited to, the following powers:

To adopt rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Areas and facilities, the personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and establish penalties for the infraction thereof;

To suspend the voting rights and right of use of the Common Areas, including but not limited to the recreational facilities, of a Member during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association upon notice to the Member of such default; and to suspend such rights, after notice and hearing, for infraction of published rules and regulations for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days;

To declare the office of a Director to be vacant in the event such Director shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board;

(d) To employ and dismiss a manager, independent contractor, agents, or employees as it deems necessary and proper, and prescribe their duties and services, fix their compensation and require of them such security or fidelity bonds as the Board

may deem appropriate;

(e) To procure, maintain, and pay premiums on, insurance policy(ies) and equitably assess the Members for their pro rata portion of such expense;

(f) To impose and receive any payments, fees, or charges for the use, rental, or operation of the Common Areas or elements other than for service provided to Members;

(g) To employ attorneys and accountants to represent the Association when deemed necessary;

(h) To grant easements for the installation and maintenance of sewerage, utilities or drainage facilities upon, over, under and across the Common Areas without the assent of the Members when such easements are necessary or proper, by vote of the Board of Directors for the convenience, use, and enjoyment of the Common Areas and Properties;

(i) To appoint and remove, at the pleasure of the Board, all of the Officers of the Association;

(j) To exercise all other powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or applicable law;

(k) To exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and operation of the Association; and

(l) To have and exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation organized under the Non-Profit Corporation Act of the State of South Carolina by law may now or hereafter have or exercise.

12. Duties of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the following duties:

(a) To cause the Common Areas to be maintained, repaired, and replaced as necessary, and to assess the Members to recover the cost of the upkeep of the Common Areas;

(b) To keep a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and present a statement thereof to the Members at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by twenty-five percent (25%) of the Members;

(c) To supervise all officers, agents, and employees of the Association, and see that their duties are properly performed;

(d) As more fully provided in the Declaration, to fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Lot at least thirty (30) days before January 1 of each year based on the projected budget for the annual assessment period;

(e) To send written notice of each assessment to every Member at least thirty (30) days in advance of the due date for each annual assessment;

(f) To foreclose any unpaid assessments and liens and liens resulting therefrom against any Lot for which assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after due date and to bring an action against the Member personally obligated to pay the same, as the Board may elect;

(g) To issue, or have issued, for a reasonable charge, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid to or for the benefit of members, the Board, or third parties requesting the same; provided, however, that if a certificate states that an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;

(h) To procure and maintain, at all times, adequate hazard insurance on the Common Areas and other property owned by the Association and upon all other property for which the Association has the duty to maintain, and liability insurance in such amounts as may be reasonable and customary for like Associations in the area to protect the Association and officers and Directors thereof; and

(i) To cause all officers or employees, including officers and employees of professional management, having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as the Board may deem appropriate.

Article V

Officers

1. Officers. The officers of the Association shall be a President and Vice-President, who shall at all times be members of the Board of Directors, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time by resolution create.

2. Election of Officers. The election of officers shall take place at each annual meeting of the Members.
